

POLICY: PROGRAM PRICING POLICY

As per the AFP International Policy that was effective January 1, 2010, all AFP chapters will offer the member price to all AFP members regardless of chapter affiliation. As a result, “non-member” will be defined as not belonging to AFP as a whole as opposed to not being a member of the host chapter.

The Committees will consider price differential for non-members in its planning, to help offset risk and any lost income, while also serving as an added incentive for individuals to become members to the Chapter.

The pricing structure for educational sessions and webinars will be set by the Education Committee, in consultation with the Treasurer and within the budget allocation approved by the Board of Directors of the Chapter.

The pricing structure for the annual Fundraising Day conference will be set by the Fundraising Day Committee, in consultation with the Treasurer and within the budget allocation approved by the Board of Directors of the Chapter.

The pricing structure for the Philanthropy Awards Gala (Phils) will be set by the Philanthropy Awards Committee in consultation with the Treasurer and within the budget allocation approved by the Board of Directors of the Chapter.

The pricing structure for member-only networking events will be set by the membership Committee,

The CFRE Study-Buddy Program will be provided at no cost, and limited to, AFP members.

The Chapter may enter into agreements with third parties to increase the educational or networking opportunities to members, or to raise AFP Profile. When these events are offered at no cost to members, the President may authorize it however, the chapter will not incur any expenses unless it is approved by the Board
