

Outstanding Fundraising Professional

Dr. Jacline Nyman

Nominated by KPMG LLP

As VP, External Relations, Jacline leads a team of 120 professionals in championing the vision of uOttawa, currently ranked in the top 10 Canadian research universities and top 2% in the world. She focuses on alumni and donor relations, marketing and communications and is currently completing a $400 million campaign. Prior to joining uOttawa, Jacline was President and CEO of United Way Centraide Canada and held leadership positions across the country at a variety of universities.

A regular speaker about philanthropy and the social mission sector, Dr. Nyman has appeared on CTV's "Your Morning", Roger's "Daytime", CTV's "Power Play", CBC's "Lang & O'Leary Exchange" and on the Canada2020 stage. She appeared before the Senate of Canada's Special Committee on the Charitable Sector; participated in national "Days on the Hill" engaging with MPs and Senators from across Canada to advocate for the sector. Internationally, Dr. Nyman has spoken on panels about social development and philanthropy in the USA, Mexico City, South Korea, Netherlands, UK, and Germany.

Dr. Nyman actively researches in marketing, the non-profit sector, philanthropy and most recently, using machine learning and artificial intelligence to enhance fundraising programs.

Jacline Chairs the Board of Elevate International and is a Trustee on the Board of the Royal Ottawa Hospital.

Jacline holds Bachelor, Master's and Doctorate degrees in Business Administration along with the ICD.D corporate governance designation.

