

Award for Outstanding Volunteer Fundraiser
Sponsored by Brazeau Sellar LLP

This award is conferred on an individual who demonstrates a leadership role in significant fundraising projects for more than one charitable organization within the community. This person is dedicated to serving charitable institutions and is committed to the advancement of philanthropy.

Ian M. Sherman

With over 35 years of experience working as a Tax Partner in the EY Ottawa office, Ian M. Sherman has recently retired from full-time public accounting practice. He managed the Ottawa Office Tax Practice of over 90 professionals and was a Tax Account Leader coordinating and facilitating services to many of EY's local and multinational clients in several industry sectors. Since July 1, 2021, through his company Relationship Capital Inc., Ian assumed corporate roles as a director, family business adviser, board member, and other advisory roles, leveraging his business and professional relationship network, as well as experience and skills from almost four decades of professional practice.

For over 10 years, Ian was an Instructor for the CPA Canada In-Depth Income Tax Course. From 2007 to 2011, he was Chair of the CICA Tax Courses Committee and Chair of its Tax Education Task Force. Ian is a Past Chair of the CPA Canada Income Tax Education Committee.
