

Award for Outstanding Individual Philanthropist
Sponsored by Virtual Works

This award honours an individual who demonstrates ongoing personal financial commitment to local charitable organizations. Recipients of this award exhibit outstanding civic and charitable responsibility and their generosity encourages others to take philanthropic leadership roles.

Dave and Ann Trick

Dave and Ann Trick are retired entrepreneurs and have been married for 33 years. They are proud of their six children and nine grandchildren, one of whom is a child with special needs.

Mrs. Trick holds a Bachelor of Nursing Science and an Honours Degree in Psychology and graduated from Hotel Dieu Hospital in Kingston as a Registered Nurse, while Mr. Trick graduated from Algonquin College with a Diploma in Biochemical Chemistry. Their entrepreneurial endeavors have included owning the Perth Soap Company, Trillium Health Care Pharmaceutical Company, and the St. Bernard Soap Company in Cincinnati, Ohio, formerly owned by Procter and Gamble. Mrs. Trick has also taught at Algonquin College.

Mr. and Mrs. Trick have a long history of community involvement. Mr. Trick's business background includes the mentoring of entrepreneurs, and Mrs. Trick's passion for cultivating a culture of volunteerism is rooted in her own authentic desire to give back. They created The Dave and Ann Trick Family Foundation with various charities and causes in mind, with a particular focus on the needs of victims of catastrophic events and healthcare research, impacting countless lives in Ottawa and abroad.
