

Who We Are

Shorefast is one of North America's most creative and notable social enterprises and the charitable organization behind the world-renowned Fogo Island Inn and Fogo Island Arts. Shorefast's work has garnered significant international interest including a feature on 60 Minutes and named in The New York Times' 52 Places for a Changed World.

Shorefast is committed to building economic and cultural resilience on Fogo Island while making it possible for local communities to thrive in the global economy; we're forging a new path at the intersection of business, philanthropy, and community economic development.

The Opportunity

Shorefast is a multi-faceted organization with both charitable and business operations focused on community economic development. Under our charity, our programmes cover art, heritage, and the environment; our businesses centre on hospitality, furniture, and food – a wide range of things to know and learn.

As Executive Administrator, you will work across all these knowledge points, either from Fogo Island, NL or Ottawa, ON. This position provides executive level administrative support for Shorefast's CEO and executive leadership team, as well administrative support for Shorefast's Boards of Directors. To support executive leadership, our ideal candidate must have incredible communication skills, an acumen for organization, and flawless attention to detail. Applying a creative, community-centric lens to your work, you will intersect with a variety of dynamic, engaging individuals both internal and external to the organization.

And, whether through visits or by living here, you will have the opportunity to experience Fogo Island, Newfoundland, one of the four corners of the flat earth.

What You'll Do

Executive Support:

- Provide executive level administrative support to the CEO including calendar appointments and meeting prep, among other similar responsibilities.
- Lead administration and logistics management for CEO's speaking engagements, including travel arrangements, itineraries, presentation prep, and event details.
- Draft correspondence and perform research, working collaboratively with colleagues.
- Organize and attend meetings as required, providing administrative support, scheduling, and logistics.

Board of Directors Support:

- Support the administration and communication with multiple Boards and committees including confirming attendance and distributing schedules, agendas, and briefing materials.
- Support Board record keeping including drafting minutes, annual filings, and other compliance documents.
- Track and prompt follow-up on actionable items, often liaising with executive team, board members, and external stakeholders.

Qualifications you'll bring

- Post-secondary education is a must, and we prefer at least five years of relevant experience.
- Interest and experience in the fields of art, design, community development, economics, and business are assets.
- Well-developed communication skills: this role requires significant writing, reading and high-level analysis.
- Extensive experience handling confidential information with discretion, diplomacy, and tact.

What we offer

- An engaged, progressive, highly supportive, flexible, and collaborative work environment.
- The opportunity to work in a thriving social entrepreneurship.
- A commitment to recruiting, promoting, and training qualified individuals at all levels within the organization.
- Competitive benefits program including group insurance plan, Employee Assistance Program, and other benefits.
- Salary – dependent on education and experience. Approximately $70,000 per annum.
