

CHEO Foundation

Vice President, Corporate Philanthropy & Community Engagement

Dedicated to the best life for every child and youth, CHEO is a global leader in paediatric health care and research. The CHEO Foundation is responsible for developing, accepting, distributing, and recognizing philanthropy in support of CHEO, the CHEO Research Institute, CHEO School and Roger Neilson House. CHEO's patients range from the tiniest babies to the tallest teens, meaning CHEO's staff must have equipment available to fit the needs of every patient of all ages and sizes.

The Vice President, Corporate Philanthropy & Community Engagement (Vice President) will ensure operational excellence in the key areas of the Foundation's work, namely fundraising, community and public engagement. Reporting to the President & CEO the Vice President is responsible for the overall leadership, strategy development, financial and operational management, and fundraising success of the Corporate & Community Engagement Team. With a mandate of growing corporate giving, designing fundraising programs, contributing to the upcoming capital campaign, and continuing to improve stewardship with existing and new donors, to name a few, this is an opportunity for an experienced and passionate leader to make a significant contribution to CHEO's future.

The ideal candidate is an accomplished fundraiser. Partnership oriented, you have successfully led a team, and collaborated with colleagues through the strategic development and implementation of capital campaigns. You are goal-oriented and focused on deliverables and have significant experience moving corporate prospects through the donor cycle from pipeline development through to securing gifts in the six- to seven-figure range. You bring 7-10 years of senior-level fundraising experience, particularly with corporate donors, you demonstrate a strong belief in and commitment to CHEO and the CHEO Foundation's mission and embrace the highest standards of leadership in healthcare philanthropy.

Salary: $160,000 – $190,000

Applications are encouraged immediately and should be submitted online at <https://www.odgersberndtson.com/en/careers/18551> . For more information on the role, please contact Camille Petitti at camille.petitti@odgersberndtson.com. We thank all those who express an interest, however only those chosen for further development will be contacted.

CHEO Foundation is an equal opportunity employer. In accordance with the Accessible Canada Act, 2019 and all applicable provincial accessibility standards, upon request, accommodation will be provided by both Odgers Berndtson and CHEO Foundation throughout the recruitment, selection and/or assessment process to applicants with disabilities.

Odgers Berndtson is deeply committed to diversity, equity and inclusion in all the work that we do. As part of our efforts to better understand our ability to reach as broad a pool of candidates as possible for our searches, our DEI team would like to encourage you to take a moment and access our Self-Declaration Form.